

Number 12

16 April 1972

This is DIE SCHULDIGKEIT DES ERSTEN UND VORNEHMSTEN GEBOTES, K.35, a magazine of postal Diplomacy published by Grendel Press, P.O. Box 8342, San Diego, California 92102, U.S.A. Phone (714) 239-1574.

The present issue is a week late. Who cares?

If any of my readers know Hal Naus and/or play in any of his games, his magazines - ADAG and the rest - will be temporarily run by Grendel Press.

Hal's wife Yvonne, one of my wife's best friends and one of my favorite people, died very suddenly on Wednesday the 12th of April. My deepest sympathy goes to Hal and his family.

All readers - players and subbers - please read this carefully.

In the opinion of your publisher, the K.35 experiment is a flop. (A well-intended flop, to be sure, but a flop.) The press quality is virtually disintegrated, Barrows has lost interest and resigned, Just has lost interest but hasn't had the courtesy to resign, and the others are languishing.

I therefore propose the following action:

1. Since the purpose of the no-elimination 'Gentleman's Agreement' was to keep the press going, and since said press has withered and shows no promise of return, I suggest the Agreement be rescinded.

2. Since this magazine as an independent entity is a waste, having lost whatever uniqueness it ever possessed, I suggest that the magazine be scrapped and the game continued through COSTAGUANA.

On point one, only players may vote, and a unanimous vote of those responding is required. (Turpin and Weber are not eligible to ballot.) On point two, all readers may vote (and are encouraged to do so), and a majority rules.

Please return the following ballot or a facsimile thereof:

1. I FAVOR DROPPING THE 'AGREEMENT.' Yes _____ No _____
(Ward, Walker, Manogg, Just, Peery, Ver Ploeg only.)

2. I FAVOR CANCELLING K.#35 AND MERGING IT WITH COSTA. Yes _____ No _____

3. PAID SUBSCRIBERS ONLY:

If the magazine is dropped I would like my refund handled as checked:

- 1. Applied to a subscription to COSTAGUANA. _____
- 2. Applied to a subscription to SAGUENAY. *** _____
- 3. Refunded in postage stamps. _____

*** SAGUENAY is a magazine carrying seven games for Canadian players, plus a bourse.

All refunds or adjustments will be made on the basis of 10¢ per unreceived issue, or one issue of the alternate mag for one of this.

PLEASE RESPOND A.S.A.P.
